THESE CLAIMS.

Any citizen of the United States, man or woman, who is 21 years of age, has the right to locate and held 20 acres of oil land, either in person or through an agent, During the past year the advertiser has located about 200 people on oil land in Grand County, Colorado.

Drilling for oil is now being pushed by one company, and four more companies have been organised, and expect to begin drilling just as soon as the snow is gone. Should one of these companies strike a flowing well, the land will rell for over $1,000 per acre.

This would give a magnificent profit to each person holding 20 acres. There are very few choice claims set that can be located. Will fife your name on one of these claims, provided you will sign a contract to give 25 per cent of the selling price of the claim and pay $15 for locating, surveying and recording.

You will not be required to pay the $75 until the claim is properly located and recorded, and the papers are in your hands. This will be about May 1. The value of the land will be fully determined before September 1. Experts who have been on the ground look for strong flowing wells, Write for full carticulars and references.
